When I planned my trip to China, one of things I really wanted to do was to work at the Dujiangyan Panda Base in Chengdu. I spent seven days there, looking after the pandas, giving them food and cleaning their enclosures.

While I was there, I learned a lot about pandas. Wild pandas live in bamboo forests, high in the mountains of central China. In the past, they also lived in other parts of China and in Myanmar and Vietnam, but they don't any more. They spend about 12 hours a day eating bamboo, but they sometimes eat other plants or small animals. At Dujiangyan, we also gave them fruit, like apples, and special panda cakes made of rice, eggs and flour and other things.

Adult giant pandas weigh between 75 and 135 kilograms. Females usually only have one baby panda, or cub, at a time. The cubs only weigh about 85 grams when they are born! The little cub drinks milk for about four months and then begins to eat bamboo. Young pandas stay with their mothers for around 18 months.

Scientists think there are now between 1,500 and 2,000 pandas in the wild. This is a low number, but it's double what it was in the 1970s. The reason the number is going up is because of all the work scientists are doing at places like the Dujiangyan panda base in Chengdu. There are also about 325 pandas in zoos in a number of different countries, including the United States, Mexico, Japan and Germany.

2 Are these sentences right (✓) or wrong (X)?

- ✓ 1 The writer helped to look after giant pandas on her trip.
- X 2 It's possible to find wild pandas in several countries.
- X 3 Pandas only eat bamboo.
- ✓ 4 Baby pandas are very light when they are born.
- X 5 Pandas start eating bamboo at the age of 18 months.
- X 6 Scientists know exactly how many wild pandas there are.
- ✓ 7 It's possible to see a panda in Mexico.

TEEN TRAVEL TIPS ► MOSCOW

MONIQUE

Moscow is great for sightseeing! I took photos everywhere I went. The only problem was that I don't speak Russian, so it was hard to get a taxi, and I hate walking. My advice is to take some Russian lessons before you go. I went to the aquarium on my first day. I enjoyed it, but there were a lot of tourists. I preferred the quieter streets with little shops selling postcards and presents. After I got gifts for my friends, I didn't have much money left!

CARLA

The underground, or metro, is a great way to travel around, but too crowded for me. My favourite place was Red Square. The buildings are amazing. But don't spend all your time taking photos – I didn't. I bought postcards from the little shops. You don't need Russian. Everyone speaks English. Oh and I loved the street food and ate lots of it, but it wasn't cheap! The aquarium is fantastic. If you only go to one place, go there.

OLIVIA

My favourite place was Old Arbat, one of the oldest streets in Moscow. I wanted to get presents for my mum and dad, but all the shops had the same presents, so I didn't buy much. I mostly ate street food because it didn't cost much, and it was delicious. I went to the metro to look at the amazing stations, but I didn't travel on it. I went everywhere on foot. You see so much that way.

2 For each question, choose the correct answer. Write M for Monique, C for Carla or O for Olivia.

- O 1 Who thinks walking is the best way to travel around Moscow?
- C 2 Who found the street food in Moscow expensive?
- C 3 Who says it's important not to miss the aquarium?
- M 4 Who spent a lot of money on presents?
- O 5 Which person enjoyed visiting the metro?
- M 6 Who says you should learn some Russian before going?
- C 7 Who said it was better to buy postcards than to take photos?

William
In June, I went to the Plymouth Film Festival for the first time. I stayed with my aunt in Plymouth city centre, and I was there for the whole weekend of the festival. I had a great time. Everything, from the films to the food available in restaurants and cafés near the Arts Centre, was exactly right. But I especially loved the short animated films and the comedies. I can't wait to see more next June.

Milo
The Plymouth Film Festival is always a wonderful weekend. All the people who work to make the festival happen are so friendly and really love the films they show. This year it was difficult to choose which films to see because there were so many different kinds, from horror films to musicals. I wanted to see many more but I didn't have time. The best thing that I saw was the winner of the student's prize. It was a short drama called Uncle.

Freddie
There were lots of good things about Plymouth Film Festival. The only problem was that it was too short. For me, no other film festival is as good as this one, and I'd like it to be for two weeks instead of two days. One great thing was making new friends after every film – we all loved the films and talked for hours about them. I'd like to go back to Plymouth soon – what a great place. I really want to learn more about its history.

My hobby is making shoes. It's an unusual hobby, but I love the fantastic feeling of wearing shoes that I've made myself.

I've always liked designing things. I remember drawing clothes and shoes when I was eight, and I made my first skirt aged nine. Then three years ago, I began making shoes, and I now spend my free time doing that.

I became interested in making shoes when my cousin told me about an online shoe-making course that he was doing. I immediately wanted to do one too. Mum booked me on a four-day course at the I Can Make Shoes school in London to see if I liked it, and then I did a ten-day course there in the summer holidays.

I loved the courses. On the longer one, I made four pairs of shoes! I couldn't believe it. The teachers were excellent. That's what was best about the classes. They made us work really hard but they wanted all their students to have fun, too.

I've made about 15 pairs of shoes now. At the moment I'm making a pair of trainers using an old pair of jeans, but I've used all kinds of different things before, from old leather handbags to old cotton dresses!

Making shoes has changed my plans for the future. I know now that I want to be a designer, but not a shoe designer. I've decided I'll do home design. I've designed lots of shoes and also some clothes, so I'd like to try something new.

READING

1 Read the text quickly and choose the best title.

- A Hotels in the future
- B Future homes and holidays

A new report about the future shows us how our work, home and free time might be in a hundred years' time. In the report, a (1) _____ of scientists and designers give their ideas about the future.

They say many buildings will be much higher than the tallest buildings now. We'll also build homes with lots of floors under the ground. But we won't only build on (2) _____. There may be homes, and (3) _____ whole cities, under the sea, too.

Inside homes, we can already turn on things like the (4) _____ with our phones. In the future, we'll do more from our phones. And the walls inside our homes will move so we can change the shape of rooms (5) _____. Nobody will paint their homes. Every home will have special (6) _____ to give the walls different colours and pictures at different times.

One of the most amazing ideas in the report is that we will take our own homes with us on holiday! People will have special holiday homes, full of all their things, and carry them to their holiday place. We will use large drones (objects that fly without a pilot) to do this. This may mean that people won't use hotels in the future. And when we are bored of that, instead of going away to the beach or another country, we will leave the world and fly to the moon or go to another planet.

Is teenage life better now than in the past?

Answers 2

Simon Everything is so different from when I was a teenager. Technology is the greatest change. I had a computer – but only for games, really. And I remember my dad's first mobile phone in the car – it was huge! But the internet and smartphones changed teenage life forever. We wrote letters; they are texting each other all day. We bought a few CDs every month; they've got almost every song in the world – in a tiny device in their pocket! When we moved home, we often never saw old friends again. Now it's simple to stay in contact with anyone, anywhere. To me, teenage life looks more exciting than it was.

Not everything is positive, of course. I don't think teenagers now are as healthy as we were in the past. They don't do enough exercise. Without technology, we were more active and spent a lot of our free time outside. Roads were safer, of course, but it's unbelievable to think that often our parents didn't have any idea where we were!

Emily Yes, technology makes our lives easier and is now essential for entertainment and school. But it brings problems too – the worst are awful things like bullying on social media ...

My problem is that teenage life is too busy now. On weekdays, as well as normal lessons, there are clubs at lunchtimes. Then after school on Mondays I have Spanish lessons, trumpet on Wednesdays and our band practises on Fridays. And weekends are just not long enough! On Saturday there's yoga club and on Sunday we often see relatives. Then there's homework, of course. Sometimes I'm exhausted on Sunday evenings!

The future will be harder for us, too. And I get worried about that. My friends and I feel the most important thing is to get a good degree – or we won't be able to leave home and get a job. And that means we have to get good marks in everything now. It's stressful.

I think my parents' teenage years were more relaxed than ours are today.

KAITLIN, 15, DERBY

I'm quite a shy person and I haven't got a lot of friends. I was walking home from school yesterday, when I saw some boys from my class. They were laughing at me. One of them said, 'She's always on her own!' and he pointed at me. It was unbelievable! Why do I have to be with someone all the time? What's wrong with being on your own?

DYLAN, 14, PENZANCE

My little brother is really annoying. Yesterday, I found him in my room. He knows he mustn't go in there. And he was reading my diary! It made me really angry. Then we had an argument because he took my phone. He sent about 50 texts and now I haven't got any credit. Help!

ALEX, 15, LONDON

My best mates, Sasha and Mandy, are just like me. They're often late and they forget things, but they behave themselves (most of the time!). I was hanging out with them last Saturday and I had to get home by 10 pm, but we were having fun and I didn't realise the time. I was a bit late because they didn't have to get home until 11 pm.

Now my parents say I can't spend time with my mates because they can't trust me, and I have to get home by 9.30 pm. It isn't fair! I don't want to fall out with my parents, but they think I'm still a child. What should I do?

What you think ...

- A I agree. Sometimes you don't have anything in common with other people, and that's fine.
- B He should apologise. Maybe you should lock your door.
- C You shouldn't get angry. It's important to talk to your parents. Then you'll understand why they're worried.
- D You must show them you can change, so try to be really sensible for a month – or forever!
- E Maybe you should put a password on your phone.
- F Friendship is important, but you don't have to be with someone all the time. It's good to be independent.

What do you think about SHOES?

We all wear shoes every day. They protect our feet from the things we do every day – walking, school activities, sports and so on. But for some people they are more than that. They follow shoe styles, and a good pair of trendy shoes or trainers will not be cheap. Mag About You did a survey and we discovered that many of you pay a lot of money for shoes. We think it's because they are an essential fashion item – specially for the youth of today! A pair of shoes can make or break your style!

Here are some of the comments from the survey.

I think it's a bit boring the way everyone in my school wears the same black leather shoes. There are all kinds of shoes we could wear, but we have a uniform, and most people follow the rules. There is one girl in my class who wears all kinds of different things and she's creative, but she isn't fashionable in my opinion. My friends and I try to be a bit different and wear black trainers instead. We buy them from the same shop. But we like them!

 Raffi, South Africa

I love shoes, especially trainers. They are trendy and comfortable. You can wear them with everything – trousers, skirts and so on. At school we did a project where we had to add something to a pair of white trainers. I wrote half my name on the left and the other half on the right. It was such a cool project!

 Anne Belle, New Zealand

At my school we all have to wear these silly black or brown shoes. They look quite scruffy after a few months. Nobody likes them. Anyway, the kinds of shoes we can wear at school is a big story at the moment! The school agrees now that the style of the uniform is unfashionable. Our art teacher can give the school some advice! She has a great collection of shoes, and in the summer her sandals are always so pretty. She's really well-dressed. I want to dress like her.

 Zehra, Turkey
